You can give your car the gloss and glitter it had when you were so proud of it.

To do this is simple and easy. And with but little work and no muss or bother.

Simply use O-Cedar Polish.

The most surprising of the O-Cedar results is how long your car will retain the bright, shining, reflecting lustre. You will notice it will not collect dust easily.

You Need Courage to Grasp Opportunity

PATRIOTISM taught you thrift. Profit by this lesson. Continue to save and invest your savings.

AFTER every war comes OPPORTUNITY. The greatest war of all time is over. The greatest OPPORTUNITY is here.

AT your very door, in the Toyah Basin of West Texas, is the PECOS FIELD, predicted the coming Great OIL FIELD of the country.

FAITH and courage won the war. Faith and courage are at the bottom of every successful business venture. Without faith and courage there would not be a producing oil well in the world.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY is oil land bought before production. Your OPPORTUNITY is oil land in the Toyah Basin in the PECOS FIELD of West Texas. Your OPPORTUNITY is an interest in an OIL WELL NOW DRILLING on the southwest quarter of Section 20, Block 2, H. & G. N. R. R. survey, in Reeves county. The coming great Oil Field, the PECOS FIELD, given you with every lot or acre of land purchased in Section 30 of Block 2.

BIG COUNTRY LIFE PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN AT NORMAL

Conference Will Be Addressed by Prominent Educators and Will Continue From June 23 to July 3.

One of the important features of the summer school at the West Tennessee State Normal from June 23 to July 3 will be a conference on "Country Life and Country Life Problems." The need of this work has long been felt in the educational field and its importance places it in the foreground in the training of young teachers who are to take an active part in the training of the children in the rural section.

Normal schools come in direct contact with the rural section through the hundreds of teachers they train and send out to train the youth, and since this is true, a more desirable institution could hardly be found to carry on this work than the normals.

This conference will be conducted by some of the South's leading educators, and from all reports a large number will be in attendance. It is not merely planned for school teachers; it is planned for everybody who is interested in rural life and the better development of rural life and its many problems.

The big day will be Friday, June 27, when some important measures will be discussed by such men as Govs. Roberts, of Tennessee, and Brough, of Arkansas, and Bruce R. Payne, president of the Peabody college, and state superintendent of Tennessee. This will be known as Development Day, and some unusual things are expected to be developed and started.

In addition to the regular program, other persons will participate in this conference, and every meeting will be in charge of persons who know country life and some of the problems connected therewith.

The conference will begin about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and last until after 6. It will be held in the open air. Friday an all-day rally will be held and basket dinner served on the grounds. Dinner may be brought at the domestic science department of the Normal school.

The following program will be carried out during this conference:

Monday, June 23—George R. Jones, Wm. R. Moore Dry Goods company, Memphis, "Importance of Country Life Development."

Tuesday, June 24—Dr. E. B. Lloyd, director Memphis bureau of farm development, "Some Country Life Problems in Mississippi."

Wednesday, June 25—C. F. J. Moore, editor Commercial Appeal, "The Public Press and Country Life."

Thursday, June 26—Dr. Bruce R. Payne, president Peabody college, Nashville, Tenn., "What Education Owe to Rural Development."

Friday, June 27—All-day rally; basket dinner on grounds. Speakers, Gov. Brough, of Arkansas; Gov. Roberts, of Tennessee; Albert H. Williams, state superintendent of Tennessee, and others, to be announced later.

Monday, June 28—Robert Smith, Memphis, "Community Service in the Rural Section."

Tuesday, July 1—P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, Washington, D. C., and George Morris, editor of The Memphis News, "Some Broader Aspects of Rural Education."

Wednesday, July 2—Prof. Charles A. Keffer, director extension work in Tennessee, "What the Extension Work is Doing for the Rural Section."

Thursday, July 3—Rev. C. H. Williamson, pastor First Presbyterian church, Memphis, "How the Church Aids the Rural Life."

There will be doctors on this program who will discuss rural development along their lines and suggest methods of improvement, and other divisions of special importance to the rural section.

STATE JEWELERS MEET IN MEMPHIS JULY 6

The annual gathering of the Tennessee Retail Jewelers' association, which will be held in the Hotel Gayoso July 6-10, is attracting a great deal of interest among the Tennessee jewelers, and it is expected that this will be one of the biggest conventions ever held.

Two of the most prominent speakers will be Victor H. Wright, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Col. John L. Shepherd, of New York.

James D. Hope, president, will preside. A large delegation from Chattanooga, Knoxville and Nashville will attend. It is suggested that jewelers from small towns join one of these delegations and come in a body.

W. C. Jensen is chairman of the Nashville delegation. O. E. Brown of the Chattanooga delegation and Charles Maskall of the Knoxville delegation.

FLY TO LEWISBURG.

Two army planes from Park field will leave Memphis Thursday on a recruiting flight to Lewisburg, Tenn. Flights have been made this week to Union City and other northern points in West Tennessee, but Lieut. Makin and Mechanic Cleary, who stopped in Union City Wednesday, were unable to return to Park field on scheduled time, owing to being caught in a rainstorm.

Lieuts. Faulkner and Carr returned Wednesday from Bolivar and vicinity, where they staged exhibition flights in the aid of recruiting.

POPLAR AVENUE TEMPLE.

The services at the Poplar Avenue temple will begin Friday night at 8 o'clock. The subject of Rabbi Joseph Shubert's lecture will be "The League of Nations and Religious Liberty."

There will be a specially prepared musical program under the direction of the organist, Mrs. Sam Oppenheimer. The soloist of the evening will be Mr. Heber Moss.

Trezevant To Get His Job Without Least Trouble

There is absolutely nothing in the report that Senator Shields has stood up for the way of the confirmation of Stanley H. Trezevant as United States marshal. Senator Shields says so himself.

Wednesday the Commercial Appeal printed a story from Washington in which it said: "Trezevant was nominated at the last session of congress, but objection by Senator Shields kept the judiciary committee from reporting it out for confirmation. Whether Senator Shields intends to continue his objection to Marshal Trezevant remains to be seen."

Respecting the above quotation Senator Shields telegraphed The News Scimitar as follows: "I did not prevent the confirmation of Mr. Trezevant as marshal at the last session. There was no executive session of the senate, as I remember, after he was nominated. I have no intention of opposing him now."

Senator Shields has assured Mr. Trezevant's friends all along that he was for him and as the senator never makes a secret of his opinion on any matter there was no occasion for a misunderstanding on the part of any one sufficiently interested to make inquiry.

O. S. MAIDEN ACQUITTED.

A novel lawsuit ended in Second criminal court late Wednesday, when the jury hearing the case of the state against O. S. Maiden, real estate man, acquitted him on recommendation of the assistant state attorney.

Maiden was charged with obtaining money by false pretenses and larceny by artifice and fraud. The transfer of a house in Memphis for a farm in Union county, Miss., was involved in the deal from which the suit grew. It is charged Maiden, in consummating the deal, misrepresented the value of the Mississippi farm. The indictment charged him with "carrying away an $8,000 farm"—final destination not stated.

JUDGE RICHARDS WIPES 53 CASES OFF DOCKET

Judge Richards, of the First criminal court, lightened the congested docket of 53 misdemeanor cases Thursday by dismissing that many.

This action was taken in accordance with a resolution passed recently by the state legislature asking state courts to dismiss all misdemeanor cases where defendants are in the army or have been in the army, and that the cases be dismissed without costs. Other misdemeanor cases, where the defendants are dead or the witnesses are out of the jurisdiction of the court and there was no chance to convict, were nolle prossed.

The case against Charley Murphy, for carrying a pistol, was dismissed. Murphy is in the army. The pistol case against Will Palmer also was dismissed. Palmer is dead.

In Second criminal court an old pistol case, growing out of a murder trial, was nolle prossed. This was the case of W. R. Morehead. Morehead shot P. Patton, inspector for the gas company, on Oct. 15, 1918. Patton died Oct. 16, 1918, one year after being wounded. Morehead was tried on a charge of murder in the first degree and was acquitted.

Morehead was to have been tried Thursday on a charge of carrying a pistol, the one used in slaying Patton, but the case was nolle prossed.

JOHN PARROTT BURIED.

Funeral services for the late John C. Parrott, aged 22, of Bunjyn, were held at the Prescote Baptist Memorial church, Normal, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and pallbearers were members of the Seymour A. Myrders club of the Normal school. Mr. Parrott died in Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday while he was a student of the University of Tennessee.

Prior to entering the University of Tennessee Mr. Parrott was a student of the West Tennessee State Normal school and graduated in June, 1916. He entered the Seymour A. Myrders club of the Normal school. Mr. Parrott died in Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday while he was a student of the University of Tennessee.

STATE COURTS GET ON BOOZE TRAIL

Attorney-General Wants Copy of Federal Report and Benefit of Witnesses.

That S. O. Bates, state attorney, Judge Ed Richards, of the First criminal court, and the state grand jury, headed by John Thomas, foreman, are determined to make a little probe of their own into the alleged conspiracy in Memphis to evade the liquor laws, was evidenced Thursday when they decided, after a conference, to ask for the report of the investigators of the federal government, which has caused such a sensation in the past week.

"We have decided to ask for the government report, if Judge McCall, of the United States district court, does not object, and will also write to Attorney-General Palmer, at Washington, and ask him for the benefit of the federal whiskey report as soon as the investigation is over," Bates said Thursday.

The state also wants the benefit of the evidence of the federal investigators. It is probable that can be secured only by the consent of the federal department of justice. Certain it is that the federal investigators found either direct or indirect evidence that county and city officials and employes were implicated in the whiskey ring.
